

District Profile

Vijayapura, Karnataka

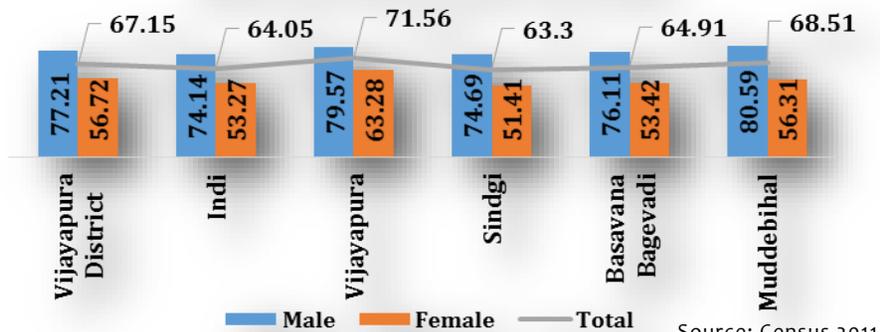

Vijayapura is a border district of Karnataka state. Its earlier name was Bijapur and in 2014 it was renamed as Vijayapura. It is well known for the great monuments of historical importance built during the Adil Shahi dynasty. The foundation of this historic city was laid during the reign of the Chalukyan dynasty of Kalayani between the 10th and 11th centuries. They called it Vijayapura or the City of Victory. The list of five tehsils/blocks in Vijayapura district is as follows: Bagewadi, Vijayapura, Indi, Muddebihal & Sindgi. There are 692 villages, 679 inhabited, 13 uninhabited and six statutory towns in the district.

DEMOGRAPHY

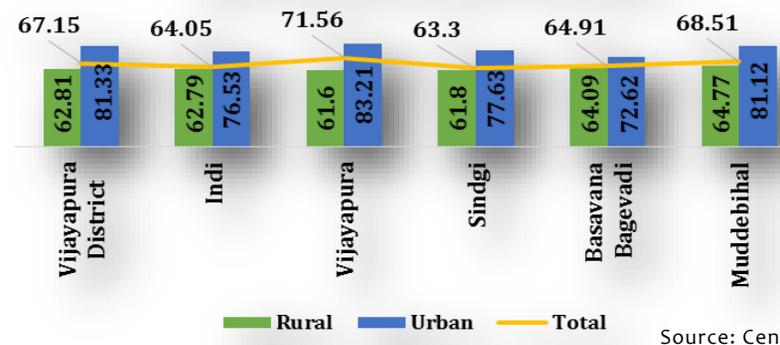

As per Census 2011, the total population of Vijayapura is 2,177,331. Out of which 1,111,022 were males and 1,066,309 were females. This gives a sex ratio of 960 females per 1000 males. The percentage of urban population in Vijayapura is 23.05 percent, which is lower than the state average of 38.6 percent. The decadal growth rate of population in Karnataka is 15.60 percent, while Vijayapura reports a 20.5 percent decadal increase in the population. The decadal growth rate of urban population in Karnataka is 4.58 percent, while Vijayapura reports at 1.1 percent. The district population density is 207 in 2011, which has increased from 172 since 2001. The Scheduled Caste population in the district is 20.3 percent while Scheduled Tribe comprises 1.8 percent of the population.

The overall literacy rate of Vijayapura district is 67.15 percent while the male & female literacy rate is 77.21 and 56.72 percent respectively. At the block level, a considerable variation is noticeable in male-female literacy rate. Indi has the lowest literacy male literacy rate at 74.14 percent and Sindgi has the lowest female rate at 51.41 percent. Muddebihal block, subsequently, has the highest male literacy rate at 80.59 percent. Vijayapura has the highest female literacy rate at 63.28 percent.

Block-wise Literacy Rate: By Gender

Block-wise Literacy Rate: By Location

The district has a literacy rate of 62.81 percent while the same in urban areas is 81.33 percent. A closer look at block level data reveals that literacy rate in rural areas lag behind the literacy rate of urban areas. Vijayapura block has the highest urban literacy rate— 83.21 percent and Muddebihal has the highest rural literacy rate— 64.77 percent. Basavana Bagevadi block has the lowest urban literacy rate— 72.62 percent and Vijayapur has the lowest rural literacy rate at 61.6 percent.

SOCIO-ECONOMIC

The three sectors of the economy – primary, secondary and tertiary – reflect the direction of growth of any region. In Vijayapura the tertiary (services) sector contributed the maximum share of 52 percent to Gross District Domestic Product (GDDP) which is lower than that of Karnataka's share of 60 percent to GSDP in 2013-14. The district's primary (agricultural) sector contributes about 1/4th to GDDP (26 percent) while the secondary sector's contribution is 22 percent. The GDDP of Vijayapura in primary sector is almost double compared to that in Karnataka.

On considering Net District Domestic Product (NDDP), Vijayapura has 26.1 percent of share in the primary sector, 21.04 percent secondary sector share, while 52.86 percent of the income comes from the tertiary sector. Karnataka, as a state, gets 14.25 percent of its output (NSDP) from the primary sector, a quarter from the secondary sector (24.5 percent); but is certainly led by the tertiary sector (61.3 percent). The district's share in NDDP to the primary sector is higher than that of the state and secondary sector and tertiary lag behind that of the state.

The per capita income or average income measures the average income earned per person in a given area in a specified year. Vijayapura's per capita income (Rs. 71,482) is less than that of the state (Rs. 126,976). Low per capita income is usually an indicator of poverty in a region. Figures drawn from the Economic Survey of Karnataka 2013-14 show that the incidence of poverty (2011-12) in urban areas is 28.5 percent whereas in rural areas is 21.4 percent in the district of Vijayapura. The overall incidence of poverty (2011-12) in the district is 23.1 percent remains slightly higher than the state level (21 percent). Low per capita income of Vijayapura might be a probable explanation to the high incidence of poverty in the district.

The percentage of main workers in the total workforce in Vijayapura is 34.91 percent which is slightly lower than the State main workers (38.3 percent) as per Census 2011.

Among the four categories, 'Cultivators' form about 28.26 percent of all workers, while 'Agricultural Labourers' form 37.90 percent. The catchall category 'Other Workers' form 31.10 percent of the entire working population of the district which is slightly lower than that of the cultivators and agricultural labourers. IT includes forms of employment in secondary and tertiary sector. The agricultural labourer form the highest percent.
